Date : 11/02/2019

In an effort to update their Attiki, Greece corporate office, Bosch called upon PolyVision and EKA Hellas designers to create unique collaboration and meeting spaces fit to their brand and aesthetic. Equipping the newly refreshed work zones with a³ CeramicSteel Sans in a variety of bold colors, each space was transformed into a collaboration hub, providing ample writing surfaces where people can focus, collaborate, socialize and rejuvenate.
